Battle Song: Onward Christian Soldiers
Introduction	3

Onward Christian Soldiers

Onward, Christian Soldiers, Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus, Going on before!
Christ the royal Master, Leads against the foe,
Forward into battle, See His banner go!

Chorus

Onward, Christian Soldiers, Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus, Going on before!

At the sign of triumph, Satan's host doth flee;
On then Christian Soldiers, On to Victory!
Hell's foundations quiver, at the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices, Lord your anthems raise;

(Women's voices)

Like a mighty army, Moves the Church of God;
Brothers we are treading, where the saints have trod;
We are not divided, All one body we,
One in hope in doctrine, One in Charity.

Onward then ye people, Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices, In the triumph song;
Glory, laud and honor, Unto Christ the King;
This thro' countless ages, Men and angels sing.

As this is part of the Alaska Native Brotherhood and Sisterhood activities are submitted in written form, I am mindful of members and officers in time past doing those ceremonials from memory with grace and beauty.

The forms presented have been the basic patterns, and surely each camp has that creative ability to add or adapt as meets approval.

It is our hope as the organization continues to grow; its membership will become familiar with our Ceremonials. Historically, the Tribes and their respective Clans formed the finest ceremonials with dignity, honor and symbols meaningful for everyday living.

The writer takes this occasion to thank a number of friends who have been helpful in making this manuscript possible. The repeated requests and resolutions have indicated an immediate need that this be done. Special thanks to Mrs. Nellie Willard, Mrs. Mildred Sparks, Mrs. David Kasko, Alfred Widmark, and to Cyrus E. Peck, Sr., for printing suggestions and assembly of the manual.

The kitchen facilities must pass State and US Public Health regulations, when in doubt check with officials. Use of disposable cups, plates, spoons and napkins are convenient exceptions. The grounds and outside of the building or camp ought to be well-kept, including interior appearance and all facilities.
2. Each member shall own a Cap, pin and Coogeeinaa. In addition, the ANS Members shall own a uniform.
3. The Ceremonial Guide is prepared with the idea of adaptability to local situations, however, cautions regarding health and fire hazards are to be observed. There will be no smoking, drugs or alcohol in meeting and/or social areas.
4. ANB/ANS Cap, Uniform, Coogeeinaa, and Pin should be worn when in attendance at official meetings, ceremonies, or as official guests at patriotic or civic functions or when officially representing the organization.
5. The ANB Cap will be removed during prayer and in a church service.

7. The President. One rap of the gavel calls the meeting to order; three raps of the gavel all stand for prayer; one rap of the gavel seats the body.

The Vice President shall have on his table a Pin for each new member; the Secretary shall have Membership Cards prepared for presentation when dues have been paid.

The business of the Camp having been cleared for receiving new members, the President shall announce the new members whose applications were approved; the Sergeant-at-Arms will escort them to the front facing the President; an installing officer may be the President, Grand Officer, and Past Grand Officer, agreed upon in advance at a regular meeting.

Initiation of members

Installation of Officers

A special committee may make arrangements. The installing officer may be the President, Grand Camp Officer, Past Grand Officer, where practical this even should be a well planned function, however, due to circumstances; installation may immediately follow an election. When feasible, a reception honoring the retiring and incoming officers is an appreciated event.

A joint installation may well follow the order stated here. Each of the retiring Presidents will assume a position indicated on the plan; the ANS immediate or retiring President will rap the gavel three times; the Immediate or retiring ANB President will announce: "The Sisterhood and Brotherhood Sergeant-at-Arms will lead in the Officers-elect, may we all stand please." The Camps will provide a Coogeeinaa for each President's use while in office with the following letters: ANB President Camp # ___ or ANS President Camp # ____ . Following the Oath of Office, each retiring or Immediate Past President is to invest the incoming officer with the Official Coogeeinaa; Installing Officer presents the gavels.

The Installing Officer to Retiring and Incoming Officers:

"Brothers and Sisters, you have served in a position of leadership, responsibility and to some degree sacrifice. The record of your Camp written and unwritten indicates how well you have served. It is our wish you will always be understanding and sympathetic with your successor, other officers and committees and out of your experience, share with them. On behalf of Camp #____, we offer you our appreciation for willingness to serve in a spirit of Brotherhood and Sisterhood. We will now recess to congratulate our officers and receive refreshments."

Memorial Service

The Memorial Service will be a joint responsibility of the Brotherhood and Sisterhood. All members will wear the Coogeeinaa and Cap. The membership being from various churches or groups is reason to vary the Memorial Ceremony; the wishes of the next of kin or family and their clergy will be respected. With the casket in position, the deceased's Coogeeinaa is to be placed one third the distance from the head of the casket. In the event the deceased served in War under the American Flag, the Flag shall be displayed on the casket, and the Coogeeinaa be placed on the President's table. The field of blue covers the left of the casket (head position). Should the deceased have other lodge or club affiliations they may be invited to serve as Honorary Pall Bearers or if a member of the American Legion or Veterans of Foreign Wars or Alaska National Guard they ought to be considered to accord the appropriate Military Honors.

At the appointed time the President shall call the meeting to order by three raps of the gavel, each rap three seconds apart.

Continue Thy Mercy to us in this hour of trial and comfort as a father would embrace a child in great need; may we have assurance of Thy abiding presence to bring healing to the broken hearts, helping us remember this is not the end as the labors, influence and heritage of the dead has been passed to us and many others; help us to understand this bears witness to Immortality born of Thy Spirit. Amen.'"

Hosting Grand Camp Convention ANB/ANS Convention

Hosting the ANB/ANS Grand Camp Convention may include these suggestions:

Upon careful consideration a camp authorized delegates to invite the next convention, the longer the period of preparation the better. The invitation is a challenge and opportunity to reactivate membership drive to meet the responsibility and honor of hosting a Grand Camp convention when carefully planned the camp will derive much encouragement plus growth. Should a large city and or its chamber of commerce be interested in a convention or vice versa; a camp should work with the city in planning this event.

The host camp president or in his absence, the vice president, should be in regular contact via telephone with the ANB/ANS Grand President and the ANB Grand Secretary in finalizing the agenda. Through communication, arrangements for typists, office equipment, phone, PA system, paper, work space, six helpers to distribute resolutions and all details will be prepared two months prior to convention date.

The ANB/ANS first and second vice president ought to have a turn monitoring the agenda with necessary announcements assisting the presiding officer.

The host camp Sergeant-at-Arms should be helpful when required by the Grand Camp Sergeant-at-Arms.

It is advised high school students in consultation with the school administration should be encouraged to assist in convention activities for classroom credit; typing, proof reading, assisting the Grand Secretary, distributing resolutions, monitoring phones, taking messages, other.

COMMITTEES: Convention Committee co-chaired by ANB/ANS Presidents

1. Housing: Co-chaired, Mail notices one month before convention date, including your address and phone number. Insist how important it is to get the list in early. Members and/or friends usually choose guests, others are assigned. Any delay in doing this list is a no, no use the phone, use the phone! Put up a guest poster for each camp, grand officers and others. The Housing Committee must have its master list handy for use during phone calls and mail responses for assignments and listing. This is a difficult job but it can be done, do not hesitate to bother the late responders...phone, phone!

2. Transportation: Co-chaired. Work closely with housing committee. Notices should include: Names of those coming, date of arrival, time, ferry or plane and phone contact. Meet arrivals, offer transportation, handle baggage, and take them to their place of stay, do the same when they are ready to leave.
3. Meals: Co-chaired. This is an expensive item. Throughout our convention years, host families have been known to take the burden and it was an honor to share. Monday through Saturday:
 - i. Breakfast: By host or at hall. Boiled eggs, coffee, tea, sweet roll. Donate or have a set price.
 - ii. Lunch: Local groups do one or more-soup, sandwich, pop, coffee, tee, fruit. Often used as a fund raiser.
 - iii. Dinner: This meal is usually sponsored by host camp, family, clan, tribe, corporation or a combination of two or more.

Various groups can help as waiters. High school students could be invited to share in this meaningful experience.

4. Decoration: When the Grand President selects a theme, this co-chaired committee should make the sign or have a volunteer share their talent, the same for modest decoration of the convention center; also plan Grand Ball decoration, purchasing necessary items, on economy side and send the bill to the ANB Grand Treasurer. The Grand Ball committee chair will appreciate this planning. They will be free to decorate and arrange refreshments.
5. Entertainment: Co-chaired. May include grade and high school students, Young and others for Native singing and Traditional dance; local talent show, other.
6. Cooks: Co-chaired. This will depend upon host for each meal, however, this committee will coordinate this important phase of a convention, including coffee, tea, pop, and sweet rolls, etc. plus a sign for donation. When necessary organize waiters.
7. First Aid: This committee is co-chaired and must always be readily available. By dividing responsibility to get task accomplished i.e. sickness, emergency, work, etc. can hinder a committee from doing its task well, by avoiding delays any job can be accomplished.

8. Custodians: Co-chaired. Clean convention hall daily, set up and stowage of tables and chairs. Also, upkeep of restrooms, i.e. cleanliness and supplies.

In appointing committees, first ask for volunteers. The size of a committee is at the discretion of the host camp. During camp meetings, each committee should report on the current accomplishments, any problems that arisen and if necessary ask for assistance and direction. In accordance with a resolution that was passed at a Hoonah Convention, alcoholic beverages shall not be served during any ANB/ANS functions.

Sealaska's policy of no smoking on its premises is urged for camps and Grand Camp Convention.
