

ANB/ANS Grand Camp

Ketchikan, AK    October 2018

Resolution 18-15

Title: Request that Grand Camp appoint a Historian

WHEREAS, There is no continuous record or longstanding inventory of the Grand Camp properties that are put on display during the annual ANB/ANS Grand Camp convention; and

WHEREAS, There is no historical centralized record of purchased and/or donated property that shows a running history for the many Grand Camp donated artifacts, pictures, and valuable properties; and

WHEREAS, To protect Grand Camp property and assets, the Grand Camp now stores such property and assets in a heated storage located in Juneau; and

WHEREAS, In the Grand Camp Constitution and Bylaws, Bylaw GC 8.01, the job description for both Grand Sergeants at Arms states that they will jointly gather, display, inventory, pack and transport all Grand Camp assets; and

WHEREAS, Both Grand Sergeants at Arms, who live in ANB/ANS camps throughout Alaska and other states, will be elected at Grand Camp convention each year; and

WHEREAS, An up-to-date property and assets inventory should be available to all new incoming and outgoing Sergeants at Arms before and after each annual convention;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Alaska Native Brotherhood and Alaska Native Sisterhood, in Grand Camp assembled October 2018, appoint Janet Soboleff Burke to be the Historian who will work with the Grand Sergeants at Arms on a project to complete an up-to-date inventory during the first year and document a history for each donated and purchased asset during the first and second year; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in 2020, at the annual convention, the appointed Historian will present to the body a completed inventory showing the identity and history of each Grand Camp item, whether donated or purchased.
